#4 Agility Course Disclaimer

Participation in the agility course is entirely voluntary and undertaken at your own risk.

By taking part, participants confirm that:

- They are responsible for ensuring their dog is fit, healthy, and suitable to take part in physical activity.
- Their dog is under control at all times and able to interact safely with people and other dogs.
- They will follow all instructions provided by event organisers and volunteers.

The organisers, volunteers, and hosting venue accept no liability for:

- Injury, loss, or damage to persons, dogs, or property arising from participation in the agility course.
- Any incidents resulting from failure to follow instructions or control a dog appropriately.

Owners/handlers are fully responsible for:

- Their dog's behaviour at all times.
- Cleaning up after their dog.
- Ensuring their dog does not pose a risk to others.
- Children must be supervised by a responsible adult at all times while using or near the agility course.

The organisers reserve the right to refuse participation or ask any participant to leave the activity area if they believe there is a risk to safety.

I can confirm I have read and understand this Agility Course Disclaimer and the risks associated with it.
